ABOUT US

With our staff personally as well as professionally involved in Irish rugby for many years we are ideally positioned to offer you the best tour to Ireland ever!

DUBLIN

The Irish capital is home to Leinster Rugby and one of our most popular rugby tour cities. In Dublin you'll experience a passionate and social rugby community as well as the infamous 'craic' for which Ireland is so well known. Grab a coffee in chic Grafton Street or live it up in the bustling Temple Bar quarter.

GALWAY

Bohemian Galway is a firm favourite with touring groups. Widely considered to boast Ireland's best nightlife you'll enjoy tradition Irish music live in most Galway pubs while the scenic walks across windswept Galway Bay facing out into the Atlantic are truly unique.

LIMERICK

Set between Cork and Galway this is considered by many to be the home of Irish rugby. Ideally located for team excursions to the Cliffs of Moher, Bunratty Castle, Adare Village and even the fabulous Kerry peninsulas, Limerick combines rugby and culture in the best possible way.

CORK

The second largest city in Ireland, Cork has a truly unique culture. Don't be surprised to hear locals refer to Cork as "The Peoples Republic" or "The Rebels". A large seaport, Cork also offers a number of excellent watersports and group activities.

Day

1

TOUR

The moment has finally arrived. You depart today for Dublin on your tour of a lifetime to Ireland! We guarantee to personally meet you at Dublin Airport in order to direct you to the coach and get you all settled into your hotel without any hassle. There's no better way to beat the jetlag than a fresh air tour of Dublin over both land and water!

Day

2

DUBLIN

After breakfast enjoy a short skills session to get the muscles working again. Why not vary things by playing some traditional Irish sports such as Gaelic Football or Hurling? Enjoy the day at leisure in Dublin exploring lively O'Connell Street or visiting the Book of Kells in Trinity College. A visit to the Guinness Storehouse is also a must!

Day

3

DUBLIN

MATCH DAY! This morning take a guided tour of Aviva Stadium, home of Irish Rugby. This afternoon you play your opening tour match followed by a post match social event with your Irish opponents. On your last night in Dublin be sure to pay a visit to the Temple Bar area of the city famed for its traditional live music and great nightlife.

Day

4

GALWAY

Depart Dublin and transfer the two hours over to bohemian Galway on the West coast. Get settled into your hotel and take a walk down Shop Street full of local Celtic craftsmen before grabbing a coffee to enjoy amongst the writers and poets in leafy Eyre Square. Galway has probably the best nightlife in the country with music, poetry and the famous Irish 'craic'!

Day

5

GALWAY

Why not take a trip out to the Aran Islands, a set of rugged isles in the Atlantic Ocean. Take the ferry from Galway and spend the day exploring a relaxed way of life that has long since gone. The locally produced handmade Aran wool Sweaters are an ideal and unique gift for those back home. Take the evening at leisure back in Galway City.
