ABOUT US

With all our staff personally involved in British and Irish rugby we are RUGBY MAD and love welcoming tours.

We have offices in both IRELAND and ENGLAND so we know all the best locations for touring sides.

LONDON

Europe's largest city and one of the world's most iconic cities; you'll not just visit Ben Big, Buckingham Palace and Westminster Abbey but also experience a city that welcomes dozens of rugby tours each year.

BATH

Beautiful Bath is set between Cardiff and London, making it an ideal stop between the two nations. It is also close to the ancient Stonehenge.

CARDIFF

Cardiff is simply crazy for rugby and is a rugby tour favourite. The Millennium Stadium stands in the city centre as testament to this love of the game.

DUBLIN

The Irish capital is home to Leinster Rugby and one of our most popular rugby tour cities. In Dublin you'll experience a social rugby community and the infamous 'craic' for which Ireland is so well known.

BELFAST

The Giants Causeway just outside Belfast is a favourite spot for a rugby tour photo but you'll also love this great city, home to Ulster Rugby.

EDINBURGH

Why not venture out to Loch Ness and try to capture the Monster? Or just enjoy Edinburgh's Royal Mile, Castle and bohemian atmosphere.

Your tour of a lifetime begins today as you depart for London.

Day

LONDON

2

Arrive in London and check in for your three night stay. You have a day at leisure and there's no better way to see London than to get out in the fresh air and take a walk around the city centre. We recommend a guided tour of London taking in some of the world's most iconic attractions before enjoying the fantastic city views from the top of London's Eye.

Day

LONDON

3

MATCH DAY! This morning, enjoy the tour at Twickenham Stadium, the home of English rugby. Twickenham is also the home of the World Rugby Museum which provides an amazing insight into how the sport has evolved. This afternoon you play your first tour match followed by a post match social event with your opponents.

Day

LONDON

4

Have a light training session in the morning before enjoying the day at leisure in London. There are so many things to do; whether you want to enjoy the fantastic Natural History and Science Museums, visit Big Ben, experience the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace or simply stroll down the bustling Oxford Street.

Day

5

Depart London today for Bath (two hours), one of the most picturesque settings in England with a proud rugby culture to match. Visit the world famous prehistoric Stonehenge monument; an absolutely must see!! Enjoy the evening at leisure exploring Bath which has a wide variety of sociable rugby pubs and traditional British restaurants.

Day

CARDIFF

6

Depart Bath this morning and complete the short journey to the Welsh capital of Cardiff. Cardiff is one of the most popular rugby tour destinations in Britain. The state of the art Millennium Stadium offers an excellent guided tour which we highly recommend. Take the afternoon at leisure and enjoy Cardiff's city centre.

Day

CARDIFF

7

MATCH DAY! Have the morning at leisure in Cardiff. Why not get out of the city and down to lovely Cardiff Bay (ten minutes drive) for a team lunch? After lunch begin your preparations for your second tour match followed by a post match social event with your opponents.

DAYS 8-14

Day

DUBLIN

8

You have an early start this morning to catch the ferry from Wales to the island of Ireland, perched out in the Atlantic Ocean. Transfer by coach from the ferry terminal to Dublin and check in for your three night stay. Have a light training session at a Dublin rugby club before an evening at leisure enjoying the brilliant Temple Bar.

Day

9

MATCH DAY! This morning see Dublin in a unique way with a hugely entertaining amphibious tour of the city. After lunch start your preparations for your third tour match followed by a post match social event with your opponents. You'll find the Irish teams to be some of the most social people in Europe both on and off the field!

Day

10

Transfer to Lansdowne Road for a visit to the home of Irish rugby, Aviva Stadium. A visit to the famous Guinness Storehouse offers stunning views of Dublin and you'll also learn how to pour the perfect pint of Guinness. This evening why not take in a traditional Irish music and dancing show to mark your last night in Dublin?

Day

BELFAST

11

Check out of Dublin and complete the two hour transfer up to the city of Belfast. Take the short journey out to the amazing Giants Causeway on the northern coast of Ireland and spend the afternoon at leisure in Belfast city centre. This is where the Titanic was built a hundred years ago and new Titanic Belfast exhibition is a great place to visit.

Day

12

Depart Belfast today and travel by ferry across the Irish sea to Scotland before transferring by coach down to the Scottish capital, Edinburgh. Famed for its bohemian atmosphere this is a hugely popular rugby tour hotbed. After your day travelling you'll want the afternoon and evening at leisure to explore Edinburgh Castle and the Royal Mile.

Day

13

MATCH DAY! This morning transfer to a local Scottish rugby club for your final tour match followed by a post match social event with your opponents. Spend the rest of the afternoon at leisure enjoying Edinburgh. A visit to the excellent Scotch Whisky distillery followed by a group dinner could cap off a really top class tour.

Day

DEPART

14

With some great memories depart Edinburgh and head for home.
